

James

Reindeer James is a real trendsetter. His black/white colour combination guarantees a hip character. In other words, James possesses the talent to turn a timeless classic like the 'houndstooth' motive into a trendy look. His distinct shape ensures 'instant pleasure' on the wall.

Olaf

With his powerful look, Olaf is a macho eye-catcher in the interior. His colour is stylish, to say the least, and the velvet creates an extravagant look. Olaf will lift every room in the house to a higher level: pure class with a somewhat obstinate character.

Victoria

Victoria the buck is a picture of pure elegance. Her feminine look lights up the interior and is sure to put a smile on everyone's face. The pink velvet is suited to a modern as well as a classic interior. One thing is sure, with Victoria on the wall every room will become a little bit more cheerful.

Joseph

Rhino Joseph stands out immediately because of this typical shape. With his stripes, he is bang on trend. The white and blue stripes ensure an instant 'beach feeling' which makes coming home even more enjoyable. Blue and white are a perfect combination with wood, but Joseph is also a real eye-catcher in a more sleek interior.

William

By nature, William is a bit contrary. With his tartan look he will undoubtedly create a unique atmosphere in the interior. The Scottish tartan has been popular for centuries, and Reindeer William brings this into the home in a fun way.
